NOTES

Series: Jesus Is

Sermon: Jesus Is Human ... The Humanity of Christ

Romans 5:12-19 (p. 1043)

Luke 2:41-52 (p. 950)

March 26, 2023

It boggles the mind! The infinite Creator and Ruler of the universe cried as a baby, went through adolescence, and grew in wisdom, stature, and favor with God and man.

Omnipresence grew in size. Omniscience developed in wisdom. Omnipotence got stronger so He could work in His dad’s carpenter shop. Jesus did not just appear to be human, He was truly man, fully human—just like you and me.

The humanity of Jesus was absolutely necessary as the means for our salvation, as Jesus came to be the second Adam. In His humanity, Jesus lived the perfect life and, therefore, became the human covenant keeper, fulfilling the Law for us. And in His humanity, Jesus died our death in our place. Fully God, fully man. Theologians call this the hypostatic union: the merging of two natures in one human being.

This morning we will take a look at this beautiful truth, finding that we must believe it to be saved; yet, also finding that our God has come near and is approachable for each of us.

Koinonia—Our Online Community

Stay connected during the week by using our church social networking site: Koinonia.genesiseureka.com. Koinonia is the Greek word for fellowship. Visit the website and follow the directions to register. You will receive a confirmation e-mail upon successful registration.

Contact office@genesiseureka.com with any questions.

We are so glad you chose Genesis to celebrate Jesus this morning and we pray that God will speak to you through the service.

If you are a first time guest, we are especially thankful to have you with us. Please complete the visitor information section and place in the offering basket so we can follow up by email. Our Teaching Elder, Mike Hubbard, would enjoy meeting you after the service.

If you have a question or would like to pray with someone after the service, please come to the area to the left of the stage.

Apr. 2—Genesis Kids Class: What Does It Mean To Be A Christian?

Whether your child has recently decided to follow Christ or is beginning to ask questions about what it means to be a Christian, this class will help you navigate the important conversations all parents need to have as they lead their children toward a life in Christ. The first meeting will be just for parents as our experienced leaders show you how to lay the foundations for spiritual conversion allowing parents to partner with the Holy Spirit as He prepares and calls their child to trust Christ as Savior. During the remaining sessions, kids will learn that God defines who they are. They can learn how God set their identity as image bearers of Him, how that identity was broken by sin, and how Jesus transforms them when they trust in Him and become a new person.

Gospel Class Starts Sun., April 2, 5:30—8:00 pm @ Church Office

Whether this is your first week at Genesis or if you have been coming for months, whether you believe in Jesus or not, this 5-week introductory class on Genesis core beliefs is the place to get started. Sign up to the right or register on-line through the QR code. Childcare is available with advance registration.

Food Drive for Eureka Food Pantry through April 30 – the Legends Community Group is sponsoring this effort. Bring donations on Sunday mornings through April 30. Questions: Alex Anders, 314-680-0698

Books for the Sermon Series Jesus Is: “Who Is Jesus” books are available for a suggested donation of $6.
