NOTES

Sermon Series: Due Justice—Micah

Sermon: Indictment: Idolatry

Micah 1:2-16 (p. 863)

October 1, 2023

Micah’s message begins with a major warning for His people Israel, predicting coming destruction at the hands of the Assyrian Empire. This was ultimately God’s sovereign judgment on His people who were drenched in idolatry.

Micah builds Jehovah’s case to show the people’s guilt and deserved justice. The first indictment is that Israel had traded their relationship with True God for cheap imitations and fake man-made gods who cannot deliver.

Most of the time, the drift toward idolatry is subtle. Generally, we don’t begin with outright rejection of Jesus. Most of the time, the path to idolatry happens as we mix the spirituality and beliefs around us with the faith delivered in the Gospel. We want all of God’s promises and blessings, yet reject any type of God who keeps us from doing what we want and getting all the things we desire. Yet, idolatry always fails us, our idols cannot save. And worse, idolatry robs us of our witness to the world.

As we will find today, idolatry is the core problem for our lives—because our hearts are idol factories.

The first meeting will be just for parents as our experienced leaders show you how to lay the foundations for spiritual conversion allowing parents to partner with the Holy Spirit as He prepares and calls their child to trust Christ as Savior. During the remaining sessions, kids will learn that God defines who they are. They can learn how God set their identity as image bearers of Him, how that identity was broken by sin, and how Jesus transforms them when they trust in Him and become a new person.
